VALUATION IS ON THE INCREASE

Appraised Value of Property in Rush
County is $248,526 Greater This Year Than Last.

BIG LOSS SUSTAINED IN 1913

Hog Cholera, Price of Corn and Increased Investments in Non-Taxable Bonds Caused it.

According to reports received from all of the township assessors by John F. Moses, county assessor, the increase in the assessed valuation of property in Rush county in 1914 over that of 1913 is $248,526.

It is impossible for the county assessor to give complete returns on the number and appraised value of live stock, automobiles, farm implements and machinery at this time
because the assessors in two townships neglected to fill out these blanks during the month of April and the first part of May up until the close of assessing time.

The increase in assessed personal property valuation, including a small amount of additional improvements,
is very gratifying to the county assessor, in view of the fact that there was a heavy loss last year. The gain
this year will not quite offset the loss of last year, but it is considered very encouraging, nevertheless, that there is a substantial gain.

Three chief reasons combined to cause the big decrease last year. The large loss to the farmers of county
from hog cholera caused the assessed property valuations to be materially reduced. Hog cholera has not been near so prevalent this year as last.

The low price of corn last year,
largely due to the exceptionally large yield, also conspired with the other reasons to bring about the decrease.
The third reason advanced is the fact that year by year taxpayers are investing more money in non-taxable bonds. Because taxes have been mounting gradually year by year,
many farmers and others with capital
have been investing largely in non-taxable gravel road bonds to avoid paying taxes on the money. It was estimated last year that there was approximately $150,000 invested in gravel road bonds alone in Rush county.

The state tax commissioners want
the number and appraised value of
horses and mules, sheep, cattle, hogs, automobiles, farm implements and machinery and household goods and libraries in each county for statistical purposes. The county assessor received a letter yesterday from the state board asking for a full report
from each township.

In order to comply with the requests, the county assessor will have to go over the records and complete the report on Walker and Jackson township. These statistics are made on separate blanks furnished by the state tax commissioners and in taking the assessment in April and the first half of May, the assessors in these two townships neglected to fill out these blanks.

They can be made out from their taxing record, but it will require a great amount of work and will not be done until after the county board of review meets. It will go in session Monday, June 1 and will remain in session twenty days. Formerly the board met for thirty days,
but since the last census showed Rush county to have a population of something less than twenty thousand,
the law provides the board shall meet
only twenty days.

The county assessor desired that these statistics from only ten of the

DOG'S HEAD TO BE EXAMINED

William Lewis Fears Rabies Because Canine Licked His Hand.

The pet dog of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis showed signs of rabies
a few days ago and the head was sent to the state laboratory for examination. During the time that the dog showed signs of rabies it playfully licked Mr. Lewis' hand and later he discovered sores and feared that he had been inoculated with the poison. In order to be on the safe side it was decided to have the head examined. It will be several days before the report will be known.

"BIG WEDNESDAY" SET FOR JUNE 10

First Bargain Day of the Season Will be Held After Two Post-ponements Have Been Made.

CONCERTS AND PICTURE SHOWS

The first "Big Wednesday" of the season will be held in Rushville June 10. This was determined on at a meeting of the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce at the offices of the chamber in the Odd Fellows building last night. Two dates have been set for the initial bargain day, but each time it had to be postponed for some reason or other.

The date selected is the same day
on which the county graduation exercises will be held, but it was felt
by the committee last night that it would not conflict in any way with the Educational Day exercises.

As previously announced, there will be a band concert in the afternoon and at night, and the motion picture shows will all be operated free to the public, at the expense of the merchants the afternoon of the day. Each merchant will offer a special bargain that is a bargain,
the committee is assured.

HUERTA REPORTED LEAVING CAPITAL

Story is Mexico City Emissaries Asked if Dictator Would be Welcome in U. S. Lines.

EXPECTED TO FLEE ANY TIME

(By William G. Shepherd.)
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, May 27.—Emissaries
from Mexico City have asked General Fred Funston if General Huerta
would be welcomed within the American lines, according to a report current here this afternoon. General Funston declined to make any statement in regard to the story, but admitted that he has asked Washington to permit him to make public "a big piece of news" later today.

There was no confirmation here of rumors that Huerta was enroute to Puerta, Mexico, to take passage on a German ship. Citizens of the capital arriving here expected the Dictator sooner or later to flee.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stewart have moved from their country home west of the city to the Helm property
recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs.
Richard Beale.

RUSHVILLE HAS ANOTHER CHANCE

Still Possible to Locate Proposed Home For Infirm Masons and Widows and Orphans.

SITE ACTION IS REINDED

Grand Lodge Declines Not to Accept Jefferson Offer Due to Limitations—Wants Central Place.

Once more Rushville has a chance to locate the proposed home for the aged and infirm Masons and widows and orphans of Masons. This is due to the fact that late yesterday afternoon, after a long and spirited debate, the masonic grand lodge of Indiana, in session in Indianapolis, voted to refer back to the Masonic home committee the question of selecting a site.

Before the committee last year selected a site at Jeffersonville in order to get a bequest from a deceased citizen of that city, Rushville was being considered as a possible site for the home. Earl H. Payne, of this city, was active in support of Rushville.

Because of its central location,
excellent road facilities and proximity to Indianapolis, Rushville last year was considered to have a good chance, outside of Jeffersonville, which the odds favored. It would seem to have an equal chance now,
with Jeffersonville eliminated.

The Indianapolis Star today said that it seemed to be the sentiment of the grand lodge that the home should be located in the central portion of the state, probably within forty miles of Indianapolis. This would place Rushville in the eligible list. It was further pointed out today by those who had noted the fact that the grand lodge had turned down the Jeffersonville offer that this would be an opportunity for the Chamber of Commerce to boost Rushville and point its excellent qualifications for the home.

The grand lodge voted last year to accept a bequest of the late James
A. Holt of Jeffersonville, who died several years ago, leaving an estate to the Jeffersonville Masonic lodge as trustee. The property willed to the lodge by Mr. Holt consisted of real estate in and around Jeffersonville and some in Louisville, and it was stipulated that the interest on the proceeds of the property would be used to construct a home for the orphans of Masonic members.

Later the Jeffersonville lodge donated the property to the grand lodge, and the latter accepted it,
naming a committee to select a site
for the establishment of a home, not only for orphans, but also for aged and infirm Masons and the widows of deceased members.

It was found that the committee
could not accept the Holt bequest and carry out the desire to establish the large institution. Accordingly
the home committee put the question
before the grand lodge for final decision.

As the result of yesterday's action the property will be turned back to the Jeffersonville lodge and the committee will find another location
for the establishment of the home.

Chief, and General S. L. Trabue
of This City Spoke in Afternoon.

Over one hundred Pythian Sisters

is composed of temples at Liberty, Connersville, Milan, Versailles,
Brookville, Sunman, Batesville, Blooming Grove, Laurel, College Corner, Fairfield, Mt. Carmel and Rush-

was decided to hold the convention
at Liberty next year.

The largest delegation was from Connersville. The Connersville temple will exemplify the ritualistic work tonight on a class of candidates and the entire degree team was here for the afternoon session of the conveno'clock. The convention will close with tonight's session. The visitors were served dinner at the First Pres-

ing and the first business session
started promptly on the hour set.

The chief address this afternoon was given by General Samuel L. Trabue of this city. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Mary Brown and the program was followed out as
was planned. Mrs. Gertrude Rariden of Liberty gave the response to Mrs.
Brown. Ruth Logan of Connersville played a piano solo and was followed by a paper by Zena McMullen of Sunman. A recitation was given by India Hermansdorfer of Brookville.
Mrs. Smith, the grand chief of Marion, also gave an address.

At the session tonight the reports of the different committees and the district treasurer will be heard. Before this the degree work will be given by the Connersville degree team.

School Alumni association today ordered a hundred and seventy-five plates for the biennial banquet which will be held in the basement of the First Presbyterian church Thursday

that great, but the officers are counting on several who have not made it known they will attend. The number may exceed the number of plates ordered.

HERE FOR WEDDING THAT WAS NOT HELD

W. S. Osborn Comes All Way From Richmond Today to Attend
Marriage of His Cousin, C. G.

HE COULDN'T LOCATE PLACE

To be invited to a wedding, to accept and then not get to attend is the experience which befell W. S.
Osborn, of School street, Richmond,
who came here today to attend the proposed marriage of Miss Mary C.
Hoyer, of somewhere, and Charles G.
Harvey, his cousin, also of somewhere.

Mr. Osborn received the invitation some time ago. He decided to attend because he had word that his brother and sister would be present,
and he desired to see them, in addition to attending the wedding. The invitation was postmarked Rushville and Mr. Osborn naturally enough concluded the wedding would be held here. The invitation said a reception would take place at high noon, but at one o'clock no license had been issued to the couple at the court house.
The invitation simply said that the ceremony would take place at the home of the bride's parents, where-ever that is.

Mr. Osborn was in a quandry. He called at all of the printing-offices to see if the invitations had been printed here. He called at the postoffice, but there no information could be obtained. Mr. Osborn displayed the invitation to a number of people but he gave it up as hopeless and left at 11:04 over the Big Four for Knights-town, from whence he was going to Richmond by interurban. His little daughter accompanied him. He expected to send her for a visit with his sister.

MEXICAN REBELS CUT ROAD

To Prevent Reinforcement Going Southward on Western Coast.

(BY CHARLES RAYMOND.)
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

On board U. S. California off Mazatlan (by wireless), May 27.—Mexican Rebel troops today cut the railroad which connects Manzanillo
and Guadalajara. General Obregon, after taking this action to prevent reinforcements reaching Guadalajara, is pushing southward, presumably with Salina Cruz as his destination.
The Federal garrison of Mazatlan is running short of food. Rebels expect the Federals to evacuate Guaymas soon.

MRS. HARGROVE IS RE-ELECTED

Rushville Woman Again Chosen
President of Woman's Missionary Societies of District.

OTHER LOCAL WOMAN NAMED

Meeting Votes to Raise $200 in Next
Two Years For Deaconess
Home Fund—Speeches Made.

The annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary societies of the Connersville District of the Indiana, Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church closed in Shelby-ville last night. Brookville was selected as the place for holding the 1915 convention.

The meeting just closed was the twenty-third annual convention and was one of the most successful ever held. All of the societies in the district were represented with the exception of College Corner.

Mrs. R. C. Hargrove of this city was re-elected president and Mrs.
C. S. Chaffee of Brookville was re-elected president emeritus. The other officers elected are as follows:
Mrs. E. M. Michener, Connersville,
and Mrs. H. C. Goodrich, Shelbyville,
vice-president; Mrs. W. M. Crist, Brookville, corresponding secretary;
Mrs. Link, Glenwood, recording secretary; Mrs. C. E. Dennett, Brookville, treasurer. The department secretaries are: young people, Mrs.
Charles Menmuir, Connersville; mite
box, Mrs. Rollin Murray, Glenwood; literature, Mrs. Clint Bodine, Rushville; temperance, Mrs. J. W. Vawter, Brookville; Systematic beneficence, Mrs. Charles Billingsley, Shelbyville. Mrs. Goodrich succeeds Mrs. T. E. Murphy of Glenwood as vice-president and Mrs. Link succeeds Mrs. John Jordan of this city
as recording secretary.

One of the important things done
by the convention was the voting to raise $200 within the next two years for the fund for a Deaconess Home in Indianapolis. The fund has already been started and every district society in Indiana will contribute a certain amount.

The convention opened with the address of welcome by Mrs. C. A.
Tindall of Shelbyville and the responses was made by Mrs. John Fulton of Glenwood. Other speakers were Mrs. Madison Swadener, state conference president, and Mrs. Alfred Stratford, state corresponding secretary. Both are from Indianapolis.

Mrs. Celeste Bernheim, of Chicago, who spoke here Monday night, delivered the chief address at the afternoon session and at the closing meeting last night. Last night her address had to deal with her conversion from the Jewish faith and was practically the same as the one given here.

Thomas Bird, a well known black-

jured yesterday, while he was en-

working with the horse when it knocked him over and trampled him.
It was thought that no bones were broken, but he received many painful bruises.

The buffalo of the United States

WOULD ABOLISH "BLUE" MONDAY

Department of Agriculture Trying to Ameliorate Wash Day for Rural Housewife.

TRY CO-OPERATIVE LAUNDRY
Chatfield, Minn., Has one in Successful Operation and Others may Be Started

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 27.—Monday washday is the bugaboo for farmers' wives which Uncle Sam is trying to ameliorate. Co-operative laundering is the solution he suggests.

This semi-domestic problem is receiving the personal attention of Secretary of Agriculture Houston himself. He is attempting to abolish the "blue" Monday for Mrs. Rural Housekeeper.

An example of the success of the Department's efforts is cited at Chatfield, Minn. There the farmers started a laundry in connection with a big creamery. They paid rent to the creamery for a portion of the building, put in a lot of machinery and hired an experienced laundryman to manage their joint co-operative venture.

The Chatfield laundry is operated on the "pound rate" basis. Five cents a pound is the uniform schedule. This laundry has now been in operation a year and its profits are estimated at 70 per cent. Laundry of all sorts has been taken.

Dividends of 10 per cent were paid the participants reducing the cost of their laundry considerably. The stockholders who put up the money have in addition been paid an extra 6 per cent, leaving a wide margin for depreciation and a sinking fund.

The surrounding farm families have seemed anxious to patronize the "farm" laundry. It relieves them of the Monday burden and also at a cheaper rate than could be done by hiring local labor.

The Department is advertising the success of the Chatfield co-operative laundry, spreading the idea that other farm communities may adopt it.

Another scheme for solving the Monday washday problem suggested by the Department is in co-operation with the Post Office Department.

"Use the parcel post" is the advice of the Post Office officials. They are advertising the advantages of farmers sending their laundry, at least their "biled" shirts to city laundries by parcel post, but this is far more expensive than the co-operative laundry plan.

Glanders vaccine is not effective in immunizing horses from this dangerous disease, according to a report of Department of Agriculture experts and specialists, following extensive experiments with horses and other animals.

The report states that "mallein" is highly effective in discovering the presence of glanders in horses, but neither mallein nor the glanders vaccine has shown "any positive value" in curing animals sick with the disease.

In the experiment 17 horses were used. They were housed so that vaccinated and unvaccinated horses were brought in contact. Mallein and eye tests were used.

Of 13 immunized animals, the Department's report found, nine contracted the disease from natural exposure, which is a large proportion. In artificial vaccinations of vaccinated animals, they showed no resistance what ever.

"For the present, therefore, it seems advisable," the Department advises, "to abstain from immunizing horses by this method. The control and eradication of glanders must still be dependent upon the concentration of our efforts in eliminating infected horses and the adoption of proper precautions against the introduction of infected animals into stables free from the disease."

Honey bees are of little value in aiding alfalfa seed crops, experts of the Department of Agriculture have found. Efforts are being made to propagate and disseminate bees which are of particular value in stripping alfalfa for seed purposes.

The alfalfa seed industry is growing and offers a new field for farmers wishing to specialize, the Department reports.

Alfalfa seed worth $676,600 was imported last year. The Department believes the United States should produce all of its own seed. The principal growers of seed are now located in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Utah and Montana.

TAKE THIS MAN'S ADVICE

Try The Great Kidney Remedy

It always gives me pleasure to recommend anything that is right and so I feel it my duty to herald the praises of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

For years I was troubled with kidney disease and it was so intense that I was bedridden for days at a time. I gave up all hope and doctors for miles around gave me no help. Incidentally I tried several patent remedies and at last tried Swamp-Root. From the first it gave me relief and it was no time before I was able to be up and around and now I am perfectly well and able to work as I used to before my terrible sickness.

So now let me thank you for your wonderful discovery and take this opportunity to recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Yours very truly,

WHAT IS OLD AGE?

Some Younger at 65 Than Others Are at 40 Years.

Old age is not marked by years, but the stiffened frame, the hardened tissues and arteries.

So many people whom you meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old" and they are older in appearance than many who are much more advanced in years.

When you begin to feel old, when your energy begins to fail build your self up with our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It is wonderful blood-maker and strengthener.

H. C. Klyce of Corinth, Miss., says: "I am 75 years old and my blood was very poor. I was in a run-down condition and felt that I must have a tonic. Vinol was recommended and it built up my strength until I felt as strong and well as ever."

Thousands of old people have found in Vinol just the medicine they need to build up the feeble, weakened system and create strength. If it fails, we return your money. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Rushville.

P. S. Stop scratching, our Saxo Salve stops itching. We guarantee it.

Amusements

The Gem will show a two reel Bison "The Wolf's Fangs" for the first picture tonight. It is said to be a thrilling Indian drama and features William Clifford, Sherman Bainbridge and Marie Walcamp. Many thrilling scenes are shown. The other is a Joker comedy entitled "Mike and Jake in For Matrimony."

The Princess will show the usual three pictures tonight. The first is a Biograph drama "The Restless Woman." The second is a drama entitled "A Friend of the District Attorney." The last is an Edison comedy "The Adventures of the Alarm Clock." Tomorrow night a two reel Vitagraph drama "Old Reliable" will be shown.

Mrs. Dora Boxley won the first and Mrs. Will Nichols second in the baking contest of the Calumet Baking Powder company held yesterday at the Windsor hotel. The prize in each case was a rocking chair.

Feeding and Literary Genius.
H. G. Wells is among those who believe that indigestion is an aid to successful authorship. Some years ago when called upon to answer the question, "What is the first step toward literary production?" Mr. Wells replied, "It is imperative if you wish to write with any power or freshness at all that you should utterly ruin your digestion." Victor Hugo appears to have done his best to bring on indigestion. Edmond Lockroy states in his memoirs that it was Hugo's invariable custom when served with crayfish to devour the head, claws and tail and to swallow the skin and pips whenever he ate an orange.

Connection between feeding and literary genius is commented on by Robert Sherard in his "Modern Paris." Theophile Gautier, himself enormous, maintained that a man of genius should be fat and for proof pointed to "that more barrel than man," Balzac; to Alexandre Dumas, "always fat and jolly;" to the "hippopotamus in breeches," Rossini, and the plump and well fed appearance of Victor Hugo and Sainte-Beuve.

Old Scottish Sanctuary.
The old sanctuary of the abbey and palace of Holyrood house, to quote the full description, was an interesting institution. The debtor was free from arrest during the week. On entering the sanctuary he enrolled himself in a formal manner and obtained a room—that is, if he could pay for it. There was a public house within the boundaries and it was not uncommon to see the debtor in the inn playing dominoes and his creditor standing looking in at the window with wistful eyes. The debtor was safe, and he knew it, and the face of the creditor told the same tale. Sunday being a dies non, the debtor could leave his sanctuary and visit his family, but he had to be careful to get back to Holyrood on Sunday night. Sometimes a debtor had the temerity to leave on a week day, but he did so at his peril.—London Spectator.

FIX JUNE 16 FOR THE CONVENTION

Republicans of Sixth District Will Meet at Cambridge City to Nominate Congressman.

CHAIRMEN HOLD A MEETING

Richmond Extends Invitation, But it is Later Withdrawn and all Favor Cambridge City.

At a meeting at Cambridge City yesterday, the Republican county chairmen of the Sixth district, by unanimous vote, decided to hold the Republican sixth district convention to nominate a candidate for congress at Cambridge City, Tuesday, June 16.

The meeting of the congressional committee was harmonious and was attended by all county chairmen and many other Republicans from over the district. Chairmen exchanged greetings and enthusiastic predictions of the possibilities for victory in the fall elections.

The national administration and the national ticket possibilities also were discussed.

L. S. Bowman, county auditor of Wayne county was present, and invited the chairmen to select Richmond as the congressional convention place. The chairmen received the invitation but did not want to hold the convention in Richmond. Mr. Bowman withdrew his invitation and voted with the others in making it unanimous to hold the convention in Cambridge City.

The names of many candidates in the district were freely discussed, but none of the chairmen committed themselves.

D. W. Comstock of Richmond is prominently mentioned, however, as the probable successful candidate. It was evident that many of the chairmen present here today would support him and that his candidacy was looked upon with favor.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., May 27.—Boillot, French driver of the Peugeot car, this afternoon broke the Speedway lap record. Averaging a hundred miles an hour, Boillot made the lap in 1 minute, thirty seconds and thirteen-hundredths. He lowered the record of one minute, thirty-two seconds and seventy-one-hundredths, established yesterday by his racing partner, Jules Goux. This is the fourth time the Speedway lap record has been lowered in two days.

ECHOES FROM CIRCLEVILLE

Circleville Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Circleville resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

Hiram Whalen, R. R. No. 1, Circleville, Rushville, Ind., says: Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine remedy and we always keep them in the house. I had pains in my back that made it hard for me to straighten after stooping and my kidneys caused me a great deal of trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pains and aches and regulated the kidney action.

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills the same that Mr. Whalen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

CALCULATED TO HURT FRATERNITY

National Pan-Hellenic Congress Announce Twelve Sororities Will Bar High School Girls.

BELONGING TO SORORITIES

Fraternities and sororities that are said to exist in high schools in Indiana, despite the objections of school authorities and in defiance of a state law, have been given another severe blow by being denounced by the Greek letter fraternities.

According to word received in Indianapolis yesterday from the National Pan-Hellenic Congress that twelve of the largest sororities have passed resolutions to bar girls belonging to high school sororities and that five other sororities have agreed to take similar action as soon as possible. A number of fraternities have taken the same action in reference to high school boys.

This, it is believed, will have almost as much, if not more, effect than state laws, as a large number of high school pupils look forward to membership to Greek letter societies when they go to college.

Rushville's Chance.

It appears that the Chamber of Commerce could get in some good licks for Rushville now with the opportunity staring it in the face to locate the proposed home for aged and infirm Masons and widows and orphans of Masons, which will be built by the grand lodge. Rushville had a chance a year ago, but lost because of the great odds against it. This year, with Jeffersonville eliminated,
every city in central Indiana is on an equal basis and the victory will be purely on the merits of the respective cities. It is fortunate that Rushville has a commercial body which may turn the wheels right now to set forth the excellent advantages of Rushville as a place for building the home. It is stated sentiment in the grand lodge favors a site centrally located, within forty miles of Indianapolis. That puts Rushville in the running. The railroad facilities are excellent, with lines running in every direction out of Rushville, and the city only an hour's ride out of Indianapolis.

Street Hawkers.

Newcastle contemplates some stringent legislation concerning street hawkers. It would be much better if Rushville had a more effective ordinance in this regard. It really ought to be so tight that it would be prohibitive. That should be the purpose of any law-making of his sort. The class of street corner venders and peddlers who infest the county seat cities in the summer time are a bore and a nuisance and they reap profits from the gullible that should not be allowed. They leave very little in return for what they take out of the city.
The license for a street hawker
under the proposed Newcastle ordinance will be $25 a day or $75 a week and for each helper $5 a day or $15 a week. A peddler's license would cost $10 a day or $25 a week.
A transient merchant will have to pay the city clerk $100 a month for the privilege of selling his goods in the city.
Agitation over a peddler from Muncie going to Newcastle and receiving double the amount charged

by local merchants for the same articles, resulted in the merchants taking the matter up as a protection for the public against such practices. A farmer from the country under the new ordinance would not be affected
as the ordinance reads, "for any person selling manufactured articles."

The President's Way.
In addition to being held in congress by administration legislation
when they should be at home building up their fences, congressmen are continually being put an inch further down in the political grave by President Wilson. His latest design on the jobs of the congressmen of the north, as they must certainly feel, comes in his refusal to speak at the annual Memorial Day exercises
to be held by Union soldiers at Arlington cemetery Saturday. To heap insult on injury, the president has consented to deliver a speech at the unveiling of a Confederate monument June 4. Despite the voices of persuasive congressmen which have been raised, the president remains obdurate. President Cleveland went fishing one Decoration Day. Union soldiers have never forgotten that.
The president's attitude is in sorry contrast to Finly Gray's plea for old soldier votes in the sixth district.

Some called up the other day and asked why a local railroad was going to change time. We very naturally replied, not attempting to get gay, of course, that the railroad should be consulted, since it was running its own business.

"But what's the use of a timetable," the voice at the other end of the line insisted, "when it is never followed?"

Not desiring to engage in any more gossip about a poor railroad,
we hung up, as any other person
would have done.

A NEW ELECTRICAL DEVICE

At Cost of $20,000 Congress May Install System to Vote on Roll Call and Save Time.

(BY BURTON K. STANDISH.)
(Written for United Press.)

Washington, May 27.—There's a scramble on among several hundred Washingtonians today for rent-free houses during the summer months in the city's most exclusive presidential districts. Few people outside the Capital realize that there are in this city scores of beautiful and costly homes which are turned over to care-takers, sometimes without rent,
and with coal, gas and electric light bills paid. On some occasion even, caretakers are paid a nominal sum
to live in the houses.

Now is the season when these caretakers are the busiest. Those who have had those positions in the past are the most active and they beseige almost daily the various road estate offices in the city. For this business is one of the hardest for real estate men to look after. In the first place they must be able to judge character "on the jump" and be able to pick men and women who would be capable and honest. Then after selecting the names of applicants the agents have to investigate their standing and trust worthiness.
In the selection of the tenants, widows almost have first choice. A good widow with children always is regarded as the best care-taker.

While the occupation of care-taker grew up originally when Washingtonians left the city for the summer it has extended to another branch now—that of furnished houses for sale or rent. For instance, if a public official who has lived here several years suddenly becomes a "lame duck" and moves
"back to the farm" his Washington
home is for sale. Often it is difficult to sell the place immediately or even to rent it. As a result a caretaker is selected. This party is given possession of the house but is required to keep it in tip-top condition and to show it to prospective buyers.

No public question in years has haunted Congressmen like the proposed liquor prohibition amendment to the federal constitution. They take to task—every time they can find them—any member of the House Judiciary Committee for reporting out the Hobson amendment. It is becoming the customary sight in the lower body to see any afternoon
groups of three or five representatives gathered around a committeeman protesting that the prohibition question should not have been brought out so boldly and put up to the members in a way that they cannot avoid being recorded.

Some members, of course, whose attitude on the question is well known, spare no pains in laughing at their "brothers in predicament." Representative Dies, of Texas, struck that note in a debate in which he said:
"I shall discuss Mexico, the Colorado strike, woman suffrage and, if I have time, I shall take up national and international prohibition." Dies voiced the opinion of a large number of the men, however, when he declared as his belief that prohibition was a state question and should not be injected into national politics. When he made that statements in the House his additional remarks were drowned by applause.

Congressman who are on the force,
or those who desire the country at large to stay "wet" but those constituents wish them to be "dry" are making all kinds of "soundings" and pleadings to senators, hoping that if the amendment passes the House the Senate will table it. There is a growing feeling in Washington, however,
that national public officials will have to face the liquor prohibition

IMPORTANT Worth Knowing

It is time the housewife should be advised on the baking powder subject and about the misleading advertisements.
The average consumer of baking powder does not know that a reaction occurs in the process of baking and the nature of the original materials is entirely changed, so that the substances which remain in the food to be eaten are very different from those which compose the baking powder before baking.

THE HOUSEWIFE SHOULD KNOW
that for this reason the statement that a baking powder contains alum or cream of tartar is worthless so far as informing the consumer as to what remains in the food.

WHAT IS EATEN
is what interests the consumer. What you eat as food is important.
Food prepared with cream of tartar baking powder does not contain any cream of tartar. Food prepared with so-called alum powder is free from alum.

WHEN CREAM OF TARTAR POWDERS ARE USED
quantities of Rochelle Salts are left in the food. Rochelle Salts is a dangerous drug and is produced by the reaction which occurs in baking.
Why do the Cream of Tartar Baking Powder Manufacturers continually talk about what is in the can instead of what is in the food to be eaten?

WHY PAY FORTY-FIVE OR FIFTY CENTS PER POUND
for cream of tartar baking powder and dose your food with Rochelle Salts when the best baking powder in the world can be and is made to retail at twenty-five cents per pound and gives you pure wholesome food?

THE DIFFERENCE
represents the twenty-million dollar trusts profit.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER
made from the finest materials possible to select, so carefully treated and correctly proportioned and combined that FOOD prepared with it is free from Rochelle Salts, alum, lime or ammonia. It also complies with the Pure Food Laws—State and National.
In buying Calumet Baking Powder you get a baking powder that is

PURE IN THE CAN - PURE IN THE BAKING

question either in the next presidential campaign or two years later.
Evasion, it is believed, will no longer be possible.

Leaders in the House are planning to cut down the time required to call the roll of members on important bills from forty-five minutes to two minutes by installing the electric voting device. During the last few years as the membership of that body has gradually increased it has taken from three-quarters of an hour to an hour to call the roll. If two or three roll calls are taken off the day's session is consumed. The new device will make it possible for each member to vote "aye" on "no" on any bill by pressing a button at his seat. The cost is estimated at $20,- 000 and is favored by Speaker
Clark and Majority Leader Underwood.

Uncle Sam will have to pay more than $5,000,000 to move his soldiers from Galveston by water to Vera Cruz according to estimates at the War Department today. The transfer by water of the field army alone will require fifty transports. Some of this expense has been accruing for some time. Because of the uncertainty of the Mexican situation it has been necessary for the War department to keep four transports
under charter at Galveston at a cost of $36,000 a month.

While this five million represents only the cost of transportation by water the railroad fares of soldiers and officers will run into the millions
if a more aggressive policy is adopted by this government south of the Rio Grande.

NEWSPAPER MEN HAD MERRY TIME

When Mexican Federals Threatened to Attack Water Works Correspondents had no Passes

GRAND RUSH TO GET THEM

Once Obtained, Few of the Writers Could get to "The Front"—Those Left Behind Profited

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(By U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, May 2.—(By mail to New York)—The first opportunity for all the war correspondents to get together on the job at one and the same time came today. Before now we've worked in relays. When "war" broke out some correspondents were in Mexico City and had to come down to Vera Cruz disguised as Englishmen. They got here too late for the battle. At the same time a large number of correspondents were on the high seas, on battleships and chartered boats and they, too, missed the battle. There were only a few correspondents in Vera Cruz at the time of the actual fighting. But, within the past few days, we've all met here—some 250 of us—and today was the first chance that the whole crowd had found a chance to work together, en masse.

It was a terrible sight; we almost upset the army routine; we had General Funston and his entire staff trying to keep out of our way so that they could take care of the fight that was impending. It was like this:

Way out in the sandhills, eight miles from the city, a Mexican captain had taken it into his head, if he could get hold of the water works of Vera Cruz, which were within a mile of his line, he could control Vera Cruz and kill the American invaders by thirst. To carry out this plan, he sent a lieutenant and three men, under a flag of truce, to Maj. Russell, who had charge of the 350 marines at the waterworks, with the demand that the maj. immediately surrender the waterworks, intimating that something would be doing. "You must surrender in 10 minutes or we will attack!" said the envoy.

When Russell, over the field wireless, flashed the news of the incident across the bleak sandhills, to General Funston's headquarters in Vera Cruz, there really was something doing. But it was among the correspondents and not among the officers and soldiers. In the first place none of the 250 of us had army passes, but only tickets which the navy had given us. We had to have army passes. We rushed up to the headquarters in street cars, coaches, on foot; we besieged the building in which Funston has his headquarters. They wouldn't let us in. General Funston was busy, they said, getting reinforcements out to the water works.

"Reinforcements!" said an indignant war correspondent. "That's all right but what about us?"

"There won't be any battle for you fellows to see, if we don't get somebody out to the waterworks to fight," said the lieutenant. "We have to get reinforcements out there first, and that's what the general is busy about."

Finally, it was arranged that a young lieutenant named William Bell should sign our passes, permitting us to go to the scene. But we could not go into the building; we must line up on the sidewalk before a door-like window which opened into the room where Lieutenant Bell sat. We were dead willing. It was our fault anyhow, because we hadn't arranged for our passes earlier. We stood in line like people at a theater box office. As soon as a man got his pass, he started for "the front." "Starting for the front" consisted in finding something to ride on or in. One young correspondent dashed into the middle of the street, dragged a Mexican peon from a burro, bought the burro, saddle and bridle outright for 50 pesos and started off along the pavement in entirely the wrong direction. Two very plump English war correspondents hired a coach and ordered the driver to take them to the water works; he took them to the edge of the town, got stuck in the sand and brought the pair back in the evening, after they had ridden four miles. There was one party of real war correspondents—chaps who have been in wars from Russia to Montenegro—who were caught napping, not yet having secured horses. They rode on a street car to the edge of town and then started to walk the rest of the way in the broiling sun. They had plenty of ginger and energy and the seven carried huge revolvers—and everything was all right about their expedition, except that they went in the wrong direction. They started out at noon, saw some federals through a field glass at 3 o'clock, at the same hour turned back for Vera Cruz and reached the city again eager to buy cold-cream for sunburns.

Seven photographers seized a hand car and pumped themselves fifteen miles along the narrow gauge railroad, five miles into the Mexican lines. As soon as they saw Mexican federals they pumped themselves back again and reached the American lines exhausted. Nobody could find the waterworks, in time to see the rumpus. True, very late in the afternoon one war correspondent on a mule, who had lost way, wound up, by accident at the water works and got the story of what had happened, first hand, from some of the soldiers who had been witnesses of the affair. He got back to town about 9 in the evening and dashed madly to the cable office, only to learn that every correspondent in town had heard the story and put it on the cable many hours before. It had all been a matter of field wireless. General Funston, and his staff officers, had been in constant communication with the forces near the waterworks and a few correspondents who had been forced to stay, broken hearted with disappointment at headquarters, were handed the story on a silver tray, as it were, hours before the war correspondents who had "gone to the front" could get back and find out that there hadn't been a battle and that the Mexicans had withdrawn.

CAN SAVE MUCH BY SPRAYING

State Entomologist says Farmers Should Begin Fighting San Jose Scale—Very Destructive

$10,000 DAMAGE EACH YEAR

Lime Sulphate Solution is Very Effective Against it and Should be Used Now

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, May 27.—"It rests with the farmers and fruit growers of Indiana whether they save the state ten thousand dollars in fruit trees this spring and summer, or whether this great loss shall go as tribute to the San Jose scale," said C. H. Baldwin, state entomologist, when interviewed today by the United Press. "Thousands of trees are dying annually in Indiana because of the ravages of this pest," he said, "and yet with little expense the fruit grower can fight it successfully."

Baldwin said that this insect was one of the most destructive in Indiana; that many varieties of trees and shrubs were attacked by it, but that fruit trees were particularly susceptible. While sour cherries are nearly immune, peaches and plums succumb quicker than most others.

The time to begin on the San Jose scale is at once, according to Baldwin. He said that in the first ten days of June every tree affected in the least should be given a thorough spraying with the summer strength of the lime sulphur solution. This solution consists of 1½ gallons of lime-sulphur to 5 quarts of water. It should be applied with the nozzle giving a fine mist, and the spray should reach from the ground to the tips of the smallest branches. The commercial lime-sulphur product should be used to avoid mistakes in mixing.

Baldwin said that if the farmer hadn't overlooked his opportunity, he would have killed the San Jose scale during the months when the trees are dormant. If he had acted then he could have used a stronger solution, which would have killed the older insects with the developed scale. The summer solution will kill only the young scale without protection, but the use of the summer solution now will tide the tree over to the dormant period when the stronger solution can be used, he said. The stronger solution might kill the tree if used now.

Since the San Jose scale is continually hatching out, it would be wise to give another spraying between the 10th and 20th of July. This second spraying also will catch the second brood of codling moth.

The San Jose scale when first born appears like a tiny, yellow particle or like a speck of sulphur. It crawls about. Later it develops a hard shell. The scale sucks the juices from the tree through its mouth part, or "bill". To reach the vital part of the tree it crawls down under the scaly bark of the tree next to the sappy structure.

FOR OUTING WEAR AND SPORTS THE SEVERE TAILORED NOTE IS STILL THE THING

Outing clothes are very important to the smart wardrobe this season, whether one is inclined to athletics or not.

The materials most favored for sports coats, walking skirts, etc., are sponge, cote de Cheval, heavy chevrot, the corded cottons and various novelty weaves among the heavier cottons; linen of course is always good for tennis skirts and tailored blouses.

Where the suit displays strictly tailored lines one often notes a waistcoat of white pique, of printed cote de Cheval, or a stiffly starched collar of linen or pique.

In the riding suit shown in number 7433-8356, the material used is black whipcord, the vest and stock are of white pique, the skirt is cut in eight gores, has a panel front which may be turned back and buttoned as illustrated. The back of the skirt is stitched to simulate an inverted box-plait.

To make this suit in size 36, 2 3/4 yards of 42-inch material is needed for the coat (7433) and 4 5/8 yards of the same width for the skirt (8356). An excellent model for a play dress is shown in number 8372; it is a peasant design with elbow sleeves and applied box-plaits. There is an attractive little pointed collar and a belt that may be worn at high or low waistline.

A heavy white linen is used here with the belt of patent leather. For a child of eight, 3 yards of 36-inch material is needed.

Number 7433 sizes 34 to 44.
Number 8356 sizes 22 to 34.
Number 8372 sizes 4 to 12.

WILSON GIVES UP TO THE DICTATOR

White House Surrenders in its Demand for Unconditional Elimination of Huerta.

MAKES PEACE SEEM POSSIBLE

Active Work of Drafting Tentative Protocol Begun—Armistice May be Asked Again.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 27.—The administration at Washington has surrendered its demand for unconditional elimination of Huerta. Secretary Bryan authorized the American delegates, Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, to accept Huerta's terms on this point.

By receding from his original demand, President Wilson, in the opinion of the Mexican envoys, has assured the success of the peace conference and has averted war between the United States and Mexico.

One of the mediators said that Washington's plan for forcing Huerta out looked too much like "political proscription." The South American diplomats supported the Mexican delegates in opposing the "total eclipse" of the dictator.

Actual work of drafting a tentative peace protocol, according to the announcement of Justice Lamar, was begun yesterday by the mediators. From an equally high source it was learned that names now are being considered for a Provisional President, who will be accepted by Huerta and Carranza.

General Carranza will be notified by Secretary Bryan of the conditions on which the Mexican delegates have agreed to the elimination of Huerta. There is every reason to believe that the State Department will bring every influence to bear upon the Constitutionalists to accede to the plan and to agree to enter into a general armistice in Mexico pending the drafting and signing of the peace protocol.

Senor Rabasa, his Mexican colleagues and the South American mediators insist that the land question is a problem for internal solution and that no foreign Power will be permitted to dictate to Mexico how this problem shall be dealt with.

Senor Rabasa intended issuing a statement to this effect, but changed his mind after receiving a communication from Acting Foreign Minister Ruiz.

The mediators and the Mexican delegates continued their "informal conversation" during the afternoon. Senor Rabasa received two messages from the Foreign Office in Mexico City, and the contents of these were communicated to the South American envoys.

Unless difficulties are encountered in persuading General Carranza and his advisors to agree to the terms that have been accepted by the representatives of Wilson and Huerta, the conference should be brought to

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

FALLING HAIR AND ITCHING SCALP

Needless—Use Parisian Sage.

Now that Parisian Sage can be had at any drug counter it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly the hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is all that is needed. Frequent applications and well rubbed into the scalp will do wonders—it acts like magic. The hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp, dandruff and falling hair cease—your head feels fine. Best of all, the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

You will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage. Try at least one fifty cent bottle from F. B. Johnson & Co they will refund the purchase price if you are not satisfied.

CARRANZA WILL HAVE TO APPROVE

Must Favor List From Which Huerta's Successor Will be Picked For Mediation to Win.

WILL WAIT FOR AN ELECTION

(BY JOHN E. NEVIN.)
(By U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, May 27.—That Carranza will approve the list from which Huerta's successor will be selected or there can be no result from the Niagara Falls conference was said to be the case here today. Carranza himself will not be included. He is perfectly willing to wait until a general election. But he has made it plain that no provisional president approved by Huerta will be accepted by him.

Carranza and Villa declare that they control Mexico and that they will not be robbed of their just rights. In this lies the dynamite of the present Mexican situation, officials said today.

So favorable has been the conversation that it was believed another full conference might be called for tomorrow that would pave the way to an early settlement. No disagreement has yet occurred.

Miss Tressa Stevens, of Cleveland, O., an ex-Catholic delivered, to a large audience at the Friend's church Sunday morning and evening, the story of her life, in two lectures. In a very interesting and impressive manner she related the story of how she was born and reared in the Roman church, how that by constant training and drilling she received at home she grew to young womanhood a very strict Catholic, adhering very closely to the stringent demands of the church. She told in detail of how she was led to see the error she was in and how that she had been deceived into believing that the priest had power to forgive sins and of his infallibility. This came about through no Protestant influences whatever, no one having ever spoken to her on the subject, but by the direct dealing of God through His Word and by His Spirit to her soul.

She related how that little by little she was led to the one who alone has power to forgive sins and how that after confessing to Him she received the real forgiveness of sins such that brought joy unspeakable to her soul and life. She said but little to her enemies only to tell them of the wonderful Savior she had found and how He had brought peace and joy to her troubled heart such as never can be obtained in confessing to the priest. So she waited patiently, confident that the God who delivered the Three Hebrew children from the fiery furnace and Daniel from Lion's mouth and Moses from the hands of the Egyptians was amply able to deliver her from Romanism. So she endured her punishment without a murmur.

She went on to relate how by a combination of circumstances she again was permitted to come back to her home and that how the influence of her holy and Godly life so affected her parents and they too renounced Catholicism and were converted to Protestantism. She has no harsh criticism to offer against the people of her former church.

Bad Watering Spoils As Many Lawns As Drought

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Washington, May 27.—Bad watering is the cause of almost as many poor lawns as droughts, according to the landscape gardener of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Frequent watering of merely the surface of the grass, makes the roots of the grass grow near the surface, and these roots should be made to grow down as deeply as possible in order to secure a fine lawn that will resist the hottest weather of summer.

The best method of watering the grass is to apply a spray for from 6 to 12 hours, the stream being so gentle that water will not collect in sufficient quantities to run off. The water will then sink down into the soil and the roots will grow to a greater depth. When this method is used, the lawn should not be watered oftener than twice a week and then the ground should be soaked, so that the water penetrates for several inches beneath the surface. As a general rule, watering once a week is sufficient to keep a lawn in good condition.

The man who enjoys watering his lawn in the evening for a half hour after returning from work will probably prefer this method to leaving the stream on for a number of hours once a week. If he will divide his lawn area in 6 parts and confine his attention to a different part each evening, he will obtain practically the same results in the long run. Haphazard watering every evening is not advisable. He should be careful, also to use merely a gentle spray, and not continue watering to such an extent that water runs off, as such water does no good. In fact, it may do harm, for it may remove loose dirt from the grass roots and expose them to drought. The strong stream of a hose should not be used, as it helps to expose the roots unnecessarily.

Many people wonder why drought dries up their lawns in July after they have taken what they consider to be good care of them. The combination of hot winds and dry weather makes July undoubtedly, the hardest month for lawns, and when the roots of the grass are encouraged to grow near the surface by bad watering, and the loose dirt is also removed from them by a hose of strong water power, the results are more disastrous than if the lawn had been left alone.

Cecil Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe, of North Oliver street, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon at the Jackson school, when he slipped and fell down the basement steps. The little boy landed on his face and it was badly cut and bruised. For a time it was thought he had broken his jaw bone. It was necessary to take him to his home.

CURRENCY AND THE TARIFF

Secretary of Commerce Redfield Opens Meeting and W. J. Bryan Will Speak at Banquet.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 27.—"Big Business" opened its first national convention here today. With high government officials and officers of the largest manufacturing concerns in the United States on the program, the first National Foreign Trade Convention, as it is officially known, began its two days meeting.

The convention, its members declare, has been made necessary by the success of foreign trade of this country. Their desire to "get together" and talk over the problems confronting the manufacturer, was stimulated they say, by a desire to extend American commerce still further and to interpret, as nearly as they can, the effects the Underwood-Simmons tariff law and the new currency law have had already on business conditions here and abroad.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield has promised to open the convention while Secretary of State Bryan will be one of the chief speakers at tonight's banquet.

On the program appear such as James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation; Edward C. Simmons, of St. Louis, the hardware manufacturer; J. J. Hill, "father of the Northwest;" H. G. Herget, president of the Illinois Manufacturers Association, Ellison A. Smyth, president of the Cotton Manufacturers association of South Carolina; Capt. Robert Dollar, president of the Robert Dollar Steamship Company, of San Francisco; J. D. Ryan, president of the Amalgamated Copper Company and James A. Arnold, secretary-manager of the Texas Business Men's Association.

SOLDIERS HERE ARE NOT PLEASED

Don't Approve of President Wilson's Refusal to Attend Memorial Day Services Saturday.

FLATLY DECLINES TO DO SO

But he Will Deliver a Speech at the Unveiling of the Confederate Monument June 4.

Union soldiers here are not much pleased at the announcement contained in Washington dispatches to-day that President Wilson will not attend the memorial services for union soldiers at the Arlington national cemetery in Washington next Saturday, Decoration day, but will attend and deliver a speech at the unveiling of the Confederate monument June 4 in Washington.

As well as being a source of displeasure for the northern veterans of the civil war, dispatches say the fact that Wilson is standing put on his first declaration not to attend is causing a stew among congressmen in northern states where the old soldier vote frequently turns the tide in an election. They fear this will be a serious obstacle in their candidacy for re-election.

The dispatch continues that because of the president's unwillingness to attend the Memorial day celebration for Union soldiers, the members of the G. A. R. have withdrawn from participation in the Confederate unveiling and a row is on.

Democratic candidates of the northern states fear that the biggest sort of an issue will blow up over this matter and they are very earnest in their hope that President Wilson will motor over to the cemetery on Decoration day, even if he does not stay any longer than ten minutes.

They recall vividly the storm that was raised when President Cleveland, the last Democratic president, went fishing on Decoration day. They also apprehend that the dismissal of veterans from various government departments will not leave a good taste in the mouths of old soldiers.

Meanwhile the president's square, firm jaw seems to be set.

VALUATION IS ON THE INCREASE

Appraised Value of Property in Rush County is $248,526 Greater This Year Than Last.

BIG LOSS SUSTAINED IN 1913

Hog Cholera, Price of Corn and Increased Investments in Non-Taxable Bonds Caused it.

According to reports received from all of the township assessors by John F. Moses, county assessor, the increase in the assessed valuation of property in Rush county in 1914 over that of 1913 is $248,526.

It is impossible for the county assessor to give complete returns on the number and appraised value of live stock, automobiles, farm implements and machinery at this time because the assessors in two townships neglected to fill out these blanks during the month of April and the first part of May up until the close of assessing time.

The increase in assessed personal property valuation, including a small amount of additional improvements, is very gratifying to the county assessor, in view of the fact that there was a heavy loss last year. The gain this year will not quite offset the loss of last year, but it is considered very encouraging, nevertheless, that there is a substantial gain.

Three chief reasons combined to cause the big decrease last year. The large loss to the farmers of county from hog cholera caused the assessed property valuations to be materially reduced. Hog cholera has not been near so prevalent this year as last.

The low price of corn last year, largely due to the exceptionally large yield, also conspired with the other reasons to bring about the decrease. The third reason advanced is the fact that year by year taxpayers are investing more money in non-taxable bonds. Because taxes have been mounting gradually year by year, many farmers and others with capital have been investing largely in non-taxable gravel road bonds to avoid paying taxes on the money. It was estimated last year that there was approximately $150,000 invested in gravel road bonds alone in Rush county.

The state tax commissioners want the number and appraised value of horses and mules, sheep, cattle, hogs, automobiles, farm implements and machinery and household goods and libraries in each county for statistical purposes. The county assessor received a letter yesterday from the state board asking for a full report from each township.

In order to comply with the requests, the county assessor will have to go over the records and complete the report on Walker and Jackson townships. These statistics are made on separate blanks furnished by the state tax commissioners and in taking the assessment in April and the first half of May, the assessors in these two townships neglected to fill out these blanks.

They can be made out from their taxing record, but it will require a great amount of work and will not be done until after the county board of review meets. It will go in session Monday, June 1 and will remain in session twenty days. Formerly the board met for thirty days, but since the last census showed Rush county to have a population of something less than twenty thousand, the law provides the board shall meet only twenty days.

The county assessor desired that these statistics from only ten of the

"BIG WEDNESDAY" SET FOR JUNE 10

First Bargain Day of the Season Will be Held After Two Postponements Have Been Made.

CONCERTS AND PICTURE SHOWS

The first "Big Wednesday" of the season will be held in Rushville June 10. This was determined on at a meeting of the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce at the offices of the chamber in the Odd Fellows building last night. Two dates have been set for the initial bargain day, but each time it had to be postponed for some reason or other.

The date selected is the same day on which the county graduation exercises will be held, but it was felt by the committee last night that it would not conflict in any way with the Educational Day exercises.

As previously announced, there will be a band concert in the afternoon and at night, and the motion picture shows will all be operated free to the public, at the expense of the merchants the afternoon of the day. Each merchant will offer a special bargain that is a bargain, the committee is assured.

HUERTA REPORTED LEAVING CAPITAL

Story is Mexico City Emissaries Asked if Dictator Would be Welcome in U. S. Lines.

EXPECTED TO FLEE ANY TIME

(By William G. Shepherd.)
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, May 27.—Emissaries from Mexico City have asked General Fred Funston if General Huerta would be welcomed within the American lines, according to a report current here this afternoon. General Funston declined to make any statement in regard to the story, but admitted that he has asked Washington to permit him to make public "a big piece of news" later today.

There was no confirmation here of rumors that Huerta was enroute to Puerta, Mexico, to take passage on a German ship. Citizens of the capital arriving here expected the Dictator sooner or later to flee.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stewart have moved from their country home west of the city to the Helm property recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beale.

RUSHVILLE HAS ANOTHER CHANGE

Still Possible to Locate Proposed Home For Infirm Masons and Widows and Orphans.

SITE ACTION IS REINCEDED

Grand Lodge Declines Not to Accept Jefferson Offer Due to Limitations—Wants Central Place.

Once more Rushville has a chance to locate the proposed home for the aged and infirm Masons and widows and orphans of Masons. This is due to the fact that late yesterday afternoon, after a long and spirited debate, the masonic grand lodge of Indiana, in session in Indianapolis, voted to refer back to the Masonic home committee the question of selecting a site.

Before the committee last year selected a site at Jeffersonville in order to get a bequest from a deceased citizen of that city, Rushville was being considered as a possible site for the home. Earl H. Payne, of this city, was active in support of Rushville.

Because of its central location, excellent road facilities and proximity to Indianapolis, Rushville last year was considered to have a good chance, outside of Jeffersonville, which the odds favored. It would seem to have an equal chance now, with Jeffersonville eliminated.

The Indianapolis Star today said that it seemed to be the sentiment of the grand lodge that the home should be located in the central portion of the state, probably within forty miles of Indianapolis. This would place Rushville in the eligible list. It was further pointed out today by those who had noted the fact that the grand lodge had turned down the Jeffersonville offer that this would be an opportunity for the Chamber of Commerce to boost Rushville and point its excellent qualifications for the home.

The grand lodge voted last year to accept a bequest of the late James A. Holt of Jeffersonville, who died several years ago, leaving an estate to the Jeffersonville Masonic lodge as trustee. The property willed to the lodge by Mr. Holt consisted of real estate in and around Jeffersonville and some in Louisville, and it was stipulated that the interest on the proceeds of the property would be used to construct a home for the orphans of Masonic members.

Later the Jeffersonville lodge donated the property to the grand lodge, and the latter accepted it, naming a committee to select a site for the establishment of a home, not only for orphans, but also for aged and infirm Masons and the widows of deceased members.

It was found that the committee could not accept the Holt bequest and carry out the desire to establish the large institution. Accordingly the home committee put the question before the grand lodge for final decision.

As the result of yesterday's action the property will be turned back to the Jeffersonville lodge and the committee will find another location for the establishment of the home.

The meeting is open to the public and a large crowd is expected.

HERE FOR WEDDING THAT WAS NOT HELD

W. S. Osborn Comes All Way From Richmond Today to Attend Marriage of His Cousin, C. G.

HE COULDN'T LOCATE PLACE

To be invited to a wedding, to accept and then not get to attend is the experience which befell W. S. Osborn, of School street, Richmond, who came here today to attend the proposed marriage of Miss Mary C. Hoyer, of somewhere, and Charles G. Harvey, his cousin, also of somewhere.

Mr. Osborn received the invitation some time ago. He decided to attend because he had word that his brother and sister would be present, and he desired to see them, in addition to attending the wedding. The invitation was postmarked Rushville and Mr. Osborn naturally enough concluded the wedding would be held here. The invitation said a reception would take place at high noon, but at one o'clock no license had been issued to the couple at the court house. The invitation simply said that the ceremony would take place at the home of the bride's parents, wherever that is.

Mr. Osborn was in a quandry. He called at all of the printing-offices to see if the invitations had been printed here. He called at the postoffice, but there no information could be obtained. Mr. Osborn displayed the invitation to a number of people but he gave it up as hopeless and left at 11:04 over the Big Four for Knightstown, from whence he was going to Richmond by interurban. His little daughter accompanied him. He expected to send her for a visit with his sister.

MEXICAN REBELS CUT ROAD

To Prevent Reinforcement Going Southward on Western Coast.

(BY CHARLES RAYMOND.)
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

On board U. S. California off Mazatlan (by wireless), May 27.—Mexican Rebel troops today cut the railroad which connects Manzanillo and Guadalajara. General Obregon, after taking this action to prevent reinforcements reaching Guadalajara, is pushing southward, presumably with Salina Cruz as his destination. The Federal garrison of Mazatlan is running short of food. Rebels expect the Federals to evacuate Guaymas soon.

MRS. HARGROVE IS RE-ELECTED

Rushville Woman Again Chosen President of Woman's Missionary Societies of District.

OTHER LOCAL WOMAN NAMED

Meeting Votes to Raise $200 in Next Two Years For Deaconess Home Fund—Speeches Made.

The annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary societies of the Connersville District of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church closed in Shelbyville last night. Brookville was selected as the place for holding the 1915 convention.

The meeting just closed was the twenty-third annual convention and was one of the most successful ever held. All of the societies in the district were represented with the exception of College Corner.

Mrs. R. C. Hargrove of this city was re-elected president and Mrs. C. S. Chaffee of Brookville was re-elected president emerita. The other officers elected are as follows: Mrs. E. M. Michener, Connersville, and Mrs. H. C. Goodrich, Shelbyville, vice-president; Mrs. W. M. Crist, Brookville, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Link, Glenwood, recording secretary; Mrs. C. E. Dennett, Brookville, treasurer. The department secretaries are: young people, Mrs. Charles Menmuir, Connersville; mite box, Mrs. Rollin Murray, Glenwood; literature, Mrs. Clint Bodine, Rushville; temperance, Mrs. J. W. Vawter, Brookville; systematic beneficence, Mrs. Charles Billingsley, Shelbyville. Mrs. Goodrich succeeds Mrs. T. E. Murphy of Glenwood as vice-president and Mrs. Link succeeds Mrs. John Jordan of this city as recording secretary.

One of the important things done by the convention was the voting to raise $200 within the next two years for the fund for a Deaconess Home in Indianapolis. The fund has already been started and every district society in Indiana will contribute a certain amount.

The convention opened with the address of welcome by Mrs. C. A. Tindall of Shelbyville and the responses was made by Mrs. John Fulton of Glenwood. Other speakers were Mrs. Madison Swadener, state conference president, and Mrs. Alfred Stratford, state corresponding secretary. Both are from Indianapolis.

Mrs. Celeste Bernheim, of Chicago, who spoke here Monday night, delivered the chief address at the afternoon session and at the closing meeting last night. Last night her address had to deal with her conversion from the Jewish faith and was practically the same as the one given here.

WOULD ABOLISH "BLUE" MONDAY

Department of Agriculture Trying to Ameliorate Wash Day for Rural Housewife.

TRY CO-OPERATIVE LAUNDRY

Chatfield, Minn., Has one in Successful Operation and Others may Be Started

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 27.—Monday washday is the bugaboo for farmers' wives which Uncle Sam is trying to ameliorate. Co-operative laundering is the solution he suggests.

This semi-domestic problem is receiving the personal attention of Secretary of Agriculture Houston himself. He is attempting to abolish the "blue" Monday for Mrs. Rural Housekeeper.

An example of the success of the Department's efforts is cited at Chatfield, Minn. There the farmers started a laundry in connection with a big creamery. They paid rent to the creamery for a portion of the building, put in a lot of machinery and hired an experienced laundryman to manage their joint co-operative venture.

The Chatfield laundry is operated on the "pound rate" basis. Five cents a pound is the uniform schedule. This laundry has now been in operation a year and its profits are estimated at 70 per cent. Laundry of all sorts has been taken.

Dividends of 10 per cent were paid the participants reducing the cost of their laundry considerably. The stockholders who put up the money have in addition been paid an extra 6 per cent, leaving a wide margin for depreciation and a sinking fund.

The surrounding farm families have seemed anxious to patronize the "farm" laundry. It relieves them of the Monday burden and also at a cheaper rate than could be done by hiring local labor.

The Department is advertising the success of the Chatfield co-operative laundry, spreading the idea that other farm communities may adopt it.

Another scheme for solving the Monday wash-day problem suggested by the Department is in co-operation with the Post Office Department.

"Use the parcel post" is the advice of the Post Office officials. They are advertising the advantages of farmers sending their laundry, at least their "biled" shirts to city laundries by parcel post, but this is far more expensive than the co-operative laundry plan.

Glanders vaccine is not effective in immunizing horses from this dangerous disease, according to a report of Department of Agriculture experts and specialists, following extensive experiments with horses and other animals.

The report states that "mallein" is highly effective in discovering the presence of glanders in horses, but neither mallein nor the glanders vaccine has shown "any positive value" in curing animals sick with the disease.

In the experiment 17 horses were used. They were housed so that vaccinated and unvaccinated horses were brought in contact. Mallein and eye tests were used.

Of 13 immunized animals, the Department's report found, nine contracted the disease from natural exposure, which is a large proportion. In artificial vaccinations of vaccinated animals, they showed no resistance what ever.

"For the present, therefore, it seems advisable," the Department advises, "to abstain from immunizing horses by this method. The control and eradication of glanders must still be dependent upon the concentration of our efforts in eliminating infected horses and the adoption of proper precautions against the introduction of infected animals into stables free from the disease."

Honey bees are of little value in aiding alfalfa seed crops, experts of the Department of Agriculture have found. Efforts are being made to propagate and disseminate bees which are of particular value in stripping alfalfa for seed purposes.

The alfalfa seed industry is growing and offers a new field for farmers wishing to specialize, the Department reports.

Alfalfa seed worth $675,600 was imported last year. The Department believes the United States should produce all of its own seed. The principal growers of seed are now located in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Utah and Montana.

TAKE THIS MAN'S ADVICE

Try The Great Kidney Remedy

It always gives me pleasure to recommend anything that is right and so I feel it my duty to herald the praises of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

For years I was troubled with kidney disease and it was so intense that I was bedridden for days at a time. I gave up all hope and doctors for miles around gave me no help. Incidentally I tried several patent remedies and at last tried Swamp-Root. From the first it gave me relief and it was no time before I was able to be up and around and now I am perfectly well and able to work as I used to before my terrible sickness.

So now let me thank you for your wonderful discovery and take this opportunity to recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Yours very truly,

WHAT IS OLD AGE?

Some Younger at 65 Than Others Are at 40 Years.

Old age is not marked by years, but the stiffened frame, the hardened tissues and arteries.

So many people whom you meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old" and they are older in appearance than many who are much more advanced in years.

When you begin to feel old, when your energy begins to fail build your self up with our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It is wonderful blood-maker and strengthener.

H. C. Klyce of Corinth, Miss., says: "I am 75 years old and my blood was very poor. I was in a run-down condition and felt that I must have a tonic. Vinol was recommended and it built up my strength until I felt as strong and well as ever."

Thousands of old people have found in Vinol just the medicine they need to build up the feeble, weakened system and create strength. If it fails, we return your money. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Nashville.

Amusements

The Gem will show a two reel Bison "The Wolf's Fangs" for the first picture tonight. It is said to be a thrilling Indian drama and features William Clifford, Sherman Bainbridge and Marie Walcamp. Many thrilling scenes are shown. The other is a Joker comedy entitled "Mike and Jake in For Matrimony."

The last is an Edison comedy "The Adventures of the Alarm Clock." Tomorrow night a two reel Vitagraph drama "Old Reliable" will be shown.

Mrs. Jara Boxley won the first and Mrs. Will Nichols second in the baking contest of the Calumet Baking Powder company held yesterday at the Windsor hotel. The prize in each case was a rocking chair.

Feeding and Literary Genius.
H. G. Wells is among those who believe that indigestion is an aid to successful authorship. Some years ago when called upon to answer the question "What is the first step toward literary production?" Mr. Wells replied, "It is imperative if you wish to write with any power or freshness at all that you should utterly ruin your digestion." Victor Hugo appears to have done his best to bring on indigestion. Edmond Lockroy states in his memoirs that it was Hugo's invariable custom when served with crayfish to devour the head, claws and tail and to swallow the skin and pips whenever he ate an orange.

Connection between feeding and literary genius is commented on by Robert Sherard in his "Modern Paris." Theophile Gautier, himself enormous, maintained that a man of genius should be fat and for proof pointed to "that more barrel than man," Balzac; to Alexandre Dumas, "always fat and jolly;" to the "hippopotamus in breeches," Rossini, and the plump and well fed appearance of Victor Hugo and Sainte-Beuve.

Old Scottish Sanctuary.
The old sanctuary of the abbey and palace of Holyrood house, to quote the full description, was an interesting institution. The debtor was free from arrest during the week. On entering the sanctuary he enrolled himself in a formal manner and obtained a room—that is, if he could pay for it. There was a public house within the boundaries and it was not uncommon to see the debtor in the inn playing dominoes and his creditor standing looking in at the window with wistful eyes. The debtor was safe, and he knew it, and the face of the creditor told the same tale. Sunday being a dies non, the debtor could leave his sanctuary and visit his family, but he had to be careful to get back to Holyrood on Sunday night. Sometimes a debtor had the temerity to leave on a week day, but he did so at his peril.—London Spectator.

FIX JUNE 16 FOR THE CONVENTION

Republicans of Sixth District Will Meet at Cambridge City to Nominate Congressman.

CHAIRMEN HOLD A MEETING

Richmond Extends Invitation, But it is Later Withdrawn and all Favor Cambridge City.

At a meeting at Cambridge City yesterday, the Republican county chairman of the Sixth district, by unanimous vote, decided to hold the Republican sixth district convention at Cambridge City, Tuesday, June 16.

The meeting of the congressional committee was harmonious and was attended by all county chairmen and many other Republicans from over the district. Chairmen exchanged greetings and enthusiastic predictions of the possibilities for victory in the fall elections.

The national administration and the national ticket possibilities also were discussed.

L. S. Bowman, county auditor of Wayne county was present, and invited the chairmen to select Richmond as the congressional convention place. The chairmen received the invitation but did not want to hold the convention in Richmond. Mr. Bowman withdrew his invitation and voted with the others in making it unanimous to hold the convention in Cambridge City.

The names of many candidates in the district were freely discussed, but none of the chairmen committed themselves.

D. W. Comstock of Richmond is prominently mentioned, however, as the probable successful candidate. It was evident that many of the chairmen present here today would support him and that his candidacy was looked upon with favor.

This is the fourth time the Speedway lap record has been lowered in two days.

ECHOES FROM CIRCLEVILLE

Circleville Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Circleville resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

Hiram Whalen, R. R. No. 1, Circleville, Rushville, Ind., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine remedy and we always keep them in the house. I had pains in my back that made it hard for me to straighten after stooping and my kidneys caused me a great deal of trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pains and aches and regulated the kidney action."

CALCULATED TO HURT FRATERNITY

National Pan-Hellenic Congress Announce Twelve Sororities Will Bar High School Girls.

BELONGING TO SORORITIES

Fraternities and sororities that are said to exist in high schools in Indiana, despite the objections of school authorities and in defiance of a state law, have been given another severe blow by being denounced by the Greek letter fraternities.

According to word received in Indianapolis yesterday from the National Pan-Hellenic Congress, that twelve of the largest sororities have passed resolutions to bar girls belonging to high school sororities and that five other sororities have agreed to take similar action as soon as possible. A number of fraternities have taken the same action in reference to high school boys.

This, it is believed, will have almost as much, if not more, effect than state laws, as a large number of high school pupils look forward to membership in Greek letter societies when they go to college.

Rushville's Chance.

It appears that the Chamber of Commerce could get in some good bids for Rushville now with the opportunity staring it in the face to locate the proposed home for aged and infirm Masons and widows and orphans of Masons, which will be built by the grand lodge. Rushville had a chance a year ago, but lost because of the great odds against it. This year, with Jeffersonville eliminated, every city in central Indiana is on an equal basis and the victory will be purely on the merits of the respective cities. It is fortunate that Rushville has a commercial body which may turn the wheels right now to set forth the excellent advantages of Rushville as a place for building the home. It is stated sentiment in the grand lodge favors a site centrally located, within forty miles of Indianapolis. That puts Rushville in the running. The railroad facilities are excellent, with lines running in every direction out of Rushville, and the city only an hour's ride out of Indianapolis.

Street Hawkers.

Newcastle contemplates some stringent legislation concerning street hawkers. It would be much better if Rushville had a more effective ordinance in this regard. It really ought to be so tight that it would be prohibitive. That should be the purpose of any law-making of this sort. The class of street corner vendors and peddlers who infest the county seat cities in the summer time are a bore and a nuisance and they reap profits from the gullible that should not be allowed. They leave very little in return for what they take out of the city.

The license for a street hawker under the proposed Newcastle ordinance will be $25 a day or $75 a week and for each helper $5 a day or $15 a week. A peddler's license would cost $10 a day or $25 a week. A transient merchant will have to pay the city clerk $100 a month for the privilege of selling his goods in the city.

Congressmen Are Worried Because They Have to go on Record in Regard to Liquor Question.

A NEW ELECTRICAL DEVICE

At Cost of $20,000 Congress May Install System to Vote on Roll Call and Save Time.

(BY BURTON K. STANDISIL)

Washington, May 27.—There's a scramble on among several hundred Washingtonians today for rent-free houses during the summer months in the city's most exclusive presidential districts. Few people outside the Capital realize that there are in this city scores of beautiful and costly homes which are turned over to caretakers, sometimes without rent, and with coal, gas and electric light bills paid. On some occasion even caretakers are paid a nominal sum to live in the houses.

Now is the season when these caretakers are the busiest. Those who have had these positions in the past are the most active and they besiege almost daily the various road estate offices in the city. For this business is one of the hardest for real estate men to look after. In the first place they must be able to judge character "on the jump" and be able to pick men and women who would be capable and honest. Then after selecting the names of applicants the agents have to investigate their standing and trust worthiness. In the selection of the tenants, widows almost have first choice. A good widow with children always is regarded as the best caretaker.

While the occupation of caretaker grew up originally when Washingtonians left the city for the summer it has extended to another branch now—that of furnished houses for sale or rent. For instance, if a public official who has lived here several years suddenly becomes a "lame duck" and moves "back to the farm" his Washington home is for sale. Often it is difficult to sell the place immediately or even to rent it. As a result a caretaker is selected. This party is given possession of the house but is required to keep it in tip-top condition and to show it to prospective buyers.

No public question in years has haunted Congressmen like the proposed liquor prohibition amendment to the federal constitution. They take to task—every time they can find them—any member of the House Judiciary Committee for reporting out the Hobson amendment. It is becoming the customary sight in the lower body to see any afternoon groups of three or five representatives gathered around a committee-man protesting that the prohibition question should not have been brought out so boldly and put up to the members in a way that they cannot avoid being recorded.

Some members, of course, whose attitude on the question is well known, spare no pains in laughing at their "brothers in predicament." Representative Dies, of Texas, struck that note in a debate in which he said: "I shall discuss Mexico, the Colorado strike, woman suffrage and, if I have time, I shall take up national and international prohibition." Dies voiced the opinion of a large number of the men, however, when he declared as his belief that prohibition was a state question and should not be injected into national politics. When he made that statement in the House his additional remarks were drowned by applause.

Congressmen who are on the fence, or those who desire the country at large to stay "wet" but those constituents wish them to be "dry" are making all kinds of "soundings" and pleadings to senators, hoping that if the amendment passes the House the Senate will table it. There is a growing feeling in Washington, however, that national public officials will have to face the liquor prohibition by local merchants for the same articles, resulted in the merchants taking the matter up as a protection for the public against such practices. A farmer from the country under the new ordinance would not be affected as the ordinance reads, "for any person selling manufactured articles."

The President's Way.

In addition to being held in congress by administration legislation when they should be at home building up their fences, congressmen are continually being put an inch further down in the political grave by President Wilson. His latest design on the jobs of the congressmen of the north, as they must certainly feel, comes in his refusal to speak at the annual Memorial Day exercises to be held by Union soldiers at Arlington cemetery Saturday. To heap insult on injury, the president has consented to deliver a speech at the unveiling of a Confederate monument June 4. Despite the voices of persuasive congressmen which have been raised, the president remains obdurate. President Cleveland sweet fishing one Decoration Day. Union soldiers have never forgotten that. The president's attitude is in sorry contrast to Finly Gray's plea for old soldier votes in the sixth district.

Some called up the other day and asked why a local railroad was going to change time. We very naturally replied, not attempting to get gay, of course, that the railroad should be consulted, since it was running its own business.

"But what's the use of a timetable," the voice at the other end of the line insisted, "when it is never followed?"

Not desiring to engage in any more gossip about a poor railroad, we hung up, as any other person would have done.

IMPORTANT Worth Knowing

It is time the housewife should be advised on the baking powder subject and about the misleading advertisements. The average consumer of baking powder does not know that a reaction occurs in the process of baking and the nature of the original materials is entirely changed, so that the substances which remain in the food to be eaten are very different from those which compose the baking powder before baking.

that for this reason the statement that a baking powder contains alum or cream of tartar is worthless so far as informing the consumer as to what remains in the food.

is what interests the consumer. What you eat as food is important. Food prepared with cream of tartar baking powder does not contain any cream of tartar. Food prepared with so-called alum powder is free from alum.

WHEN CREAM OF TARTAR POWDERS ARE USED

quantities of Rochelle Salts are left in the food. Rochelle Salts is a dangerous drug and is produced by the reaction which occurs in baking. Why do the Cream of Tartar Baking Powder Manufacturers continually talk about what is in the can instead of what is in the food to be eaten?

WHY PAY FORTY-FIVE OR FIFTY CENTS PER POUND

for cream of tartar baking powder and dose your food with Rochelle Salts when the best baking powder in the world can be and is made to retail at twenty-five cents per pound and gives you pure wholesome food?

question either in the next presidential campaign or two years later. Evasion, it is believed, will no longer be possible.

Leaders in the House are planning to cut down the time required to call the roll of members on important bills from forty-five minutes to two minutes by installing the electric voting device. During the last few years as the membership of that body has gradually increased it has taken from three-quarters of an hour to an hour to call the roll. If two or three roll calls are taken off the day's session is consumed. The new device will make it possible for each member to vote "aye" or "no" on any bill by pressing a button at his seat. The cost is estimated at $20,000 and is favored by Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Underwood.

Uncle Sam will have to pay more than $5,000,000 to move his soldiers from Galveston by water to Vera Cruz according to estimates at the War Department today. The transfer by water of the field army alone will require fifty transports. Some of this expense has been accruing for some time. Because of the uncertainty of the Mexican situation it has been necessary for the War department to keep four transports under charter at Galveston at a cost of $36,000 a month.

While this five million represents only the cost of transportation by water the railroad fares of soldiers and officers will run into the millions if a more aggressive policy is adopted by this government south of the Rio Grande.

NEWSPAPER MEN HAD MERRY TIME

GRAND RUSH TO GET THEM

Once Obtained, Few of the Writers Could get to "The Front"—Those Left Behind Profited

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD

Vera Cruz, May 2.—(By mail to New York)—The first opportunity for all the war correspondents to get together on the job at one and the same time came today. Before now we've worked in relays. When "war" broke out some correspondents were in Mexico City and had to come down to Vera Cruz disguised as Englishmen. They got here too late for the battle. At the same time a large number of correspondents were on the high seas, on battleships and chartered boats and they, too, missed the battle. There were only a few correspondents in Vera Cruz at the time of the actual fighting. But, within the past few days, we've all met here—some 250 of us—and today was the first chance that the whole crowd had found a chance to work together, en masse.

It was a terrible sight; we almost upset the army routine; we had General Funston and his entire staff trying to keep out of our way so that they could take care of the tight that was impending. It was like this:

Way out in the sandhills, eight miles from the city, a Mexican captain had taken it into his head, if he could get hold of the water works of Vera Cruz, which were within a mile of his line, he could control Vera Cruz and kill the American invaders by thirst. To carry out this plan, he sent a lieutenant and three men, under a flag of truce, to Maj. Russell, who had charge of the 350 marines at the waterworks, with the demand that the maj. immediately surrender the waterworks, intimating that something would be doing. "You must surrender in 10 minutes or we will attack!" said the envoy.

When Russell, over the field wireless, flashed the news of the incident across the bleak sandhills, to General Funston's headquarters in Vera Cruz, there really was something doing. But it was among the correspondents and not among the officers and soldiers. In the first place none of the 250 of us had army passes, but only tickets which the navy had given us. We had to have army passes. We rushed up to the headquarters in street cars, coaches, on foot; we besieged the building in which Funston has his headquarters. They wouldn't let us in. General Funston was busy, they said, getting reinforcements out to the water works.

"Reinforcements!" said an indignant war correspondent. "That's all right but what about us?"

"There won't be any battle for you fellows to see, if we don't get somebody out to the waterworks to fight," said the lieutenant. "We have to get reinforcements out there first, and that's what the general is busy about."

Finally, it was arranged that a young lieutenant named William Bell should sign our passes, permitting us to go to the scene. But we could not go into the building; we must line up on the sidewalk before a door-like window which opened into the room where Lieutenant Bell sat. We were dead willing. It was our fault anyhow, because we hadn't arranged for our passes earlier. We stood in line like people at a theater box office. As soon as a man got his pass, he started for "the front." "Starting for the front" consisted in finding something to ride on or in. One young correspondent dashed into the middle of the street, dragged a Mexican peon from a burro, bought the burro, saddle and bridle outright for 50 pesos and started off along the pavement in entirely the wrong direction. Two very plump English war correspondents hired a coach and ordered the driver to take them to the water works; he took them to the edge of the town, got stuck in the sand and brought the pair back in the evening, after they had ridden four miles. There was one party of real war correspondents—chaps who have been in wars from Russia to Montenegro—who were caught napping, not yet having secured horses. They rode on a street car to the edge of town and then started to walk the rest of the way in the broiling sun. They had plenty of ginger and energy and the seven carried huge revolvers—and everything was all right about their expedition, except that they went in the wrong direction. They started out at noon, saw some federals through a field glass at 3 o'clock, at the same hour turned back for Vera Cruz and reached the city again eager to buy cold-cream for sunburns.

Seven photographers seized a hand car and pumped themselves fifteen miles along the narrow gauge railroad, five miles into the Mexican lines. As soon as they saw Mexican federals they pumped themselves back again and reached the American lines exhausted. Nobody could find the waterworks, in time to see the rumpus. True, very late in the afternoon one war correspondent on a mule, who had lost way, wound up, by accident at the water works and got the story of what had happened, first hand, from some of the soldiers who had been witnesses of the affair. He got back to town about 9 in the evening and dashed madly to the cable office, only to learn that every correspondent in town had heard the story and put it on the cable many hours before. It had all been a matter of field wireless. General Funston, and his staff officers, had been in constant communication with the forces near the waterworks and a few correspondents who had been forced to stay, broken hearted with disappointment at headquarters, were handed the story on a silver tray, as it were, hours before the war correspondents who had "gone to the front" could get back and find out that there hadn't been a battle and that the Mexicans had withdrawn.

CAN SAVE MUCH BY SPRAYING

State Entomologist says Farmers Should Begin Fighting San Jose Scale—Very Destructive

$10,000 DAMAGE EACH YEAR

Lime Sulphate Solution is Very Effective Against it and Should be Used Now

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, May 27.—"It rests with the farmers and fruit growers of Indiana whether they save the state ten thousand dollars in fruit trees this spring and summer, or whether this great loss shall go as tribute to the San Jose scale," said C. H. Baldwin, state entomologist, when interviewed today by the United Press. "Thousands of trees are dying annually in Indiana because of the ravages of this pest," he said, "and yet with little expense the fruit grower can fight it successfully."

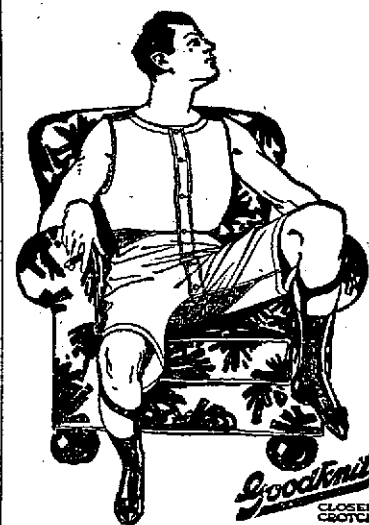

Baldwin said that this insect was one of the most destructive in Indiana; that many varieties of trees and shrubs were attacked by it, but that fruit trees were particularly susceptible. While sour cherries are nearly immune, peaches and plums succumb quicker than most others.

The time to begin on the San Jose scale is at once, according to Baldwin. He said that in the first ten days of June every tree affected in the least should be given a thorough spraying with the summer strength of the lime sulphur solution. This solution consists of 1½ gallons of lime-sulphur to 5 quarts of water. It should be applied with the nozzle giving a fine mist, and the spray should reach from the ground to the tips of the smallest branches. The commercial lime-sulphur product should be used to avoid mistakes in mixing.

Baldwin said that if the farmer hadn't overlooked his opportunity, he would have killed the San Jose scale during the months when the trees are dormant. If he had acted then he could have used a stronger solution, which would have killed the older insects with the developed scale. The summer solution will kill only the young scale without protection, but the use of the summer solution now will tide the tree over to the dormant period when the stronger solution can be used, he said. The stronger solution might kill the tree if used now.

Since the San Jose scale is continually hatching out, it would be wise to give another spraying between the 10th and 20th of July. This second spraying also will catch the second brood of egg-laying moth.

The San Jose scale when first born appears like a tiny, yellow particle or like a speck of sulphur. It crawls about. Later it develops a hard shell. The scale sucks the juices from the tree through its mouth part, or "bill". To reach the vital part of the tree it crawls down under the scaly bark of the tree next to the sappy structure.

Outing clothes are very important to the smart wardrobe this season, whether one is inclined to athletics or not.

The materials most favored for sports coats, walking skirts, etc., are sponge, cote de Cheval, heavy cheviot, the corded cottons and various novelty weaves among the heavier cottons; linen of course is always good for tennis skirts and tailored blouses.

Where the suit displays strictly tailored lines one often notes a waistcoat of white pique, of printed cote de Cheval, or a stiffly starched collar of linen or pique.

In the riding suit shown in number 7433-8356, the material used is black whipcord, the vest and stock are of white pique, the skirt is cut in eight gores, has a panel front which may be turned back and buttoned as illustrated. The back of the skirt is stitched to simulate an inverted box-plait.

To make this suit in size 36, 2 1/2 yards of 42-inch material is needed for the coat (7433) and 4 1/2 yards of the same width for the skirt (8356). An excellent model for a play dress is shown in number 8372; it is a peasant design with elbow sleeves and applied box-plaits. There is an attractive little pointed collar and a belt that may be worn at high or low waistline.

A heavy white linen is used here with the belt of patent leather. For a child of eight, 3 yards of 36-inch material is needed.

Number 7433 sizes 34 to 44.
Number 8356 sizes 22 to 34.
Number 8372 sizes 4 to 12.
Each pattern 15 cents.

WILSON GIVES UP TO THE DICTATOR

White House Surrenders in its Demand for Unconditional Elimination of Huerta.

MAKES PEACE SEEM POSSIBLE

Active Work of Drafting Tentative Protocol Begun—Armistice May be Asked Again.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 27.—The administration at Washington has surrendered its demand for unconditional elimination of Huerta. Secretary Bryan authorized the American delegates, Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, to accept Huerta's terms on this point.

By receding from his original demand, President Wilson, in the opinion of the Mexican envoys, has assured the success of the peace conference and has averted war between the United States and Mexico.

One of the mediators said that Washington's plan for forcing Huerta out looked too much like "political proscription." The South American diplomats supported the Mexican delegates in opposing the "total eclipse" of the dictator.

Actual work of drafting a tentative peace protocol, according to the announcement of Justice Lamar, was begun yesterday by the mediators. From an equally high source it was learned that names now are being considered for a Provisional President, who will be accepted by Huerta and Carranza.

General Carranza will be notified by Secretary Bryan of the conditions on which the Mexican delegates have agreed to the elimination of Huerta. There is every reason to believe that the State Department will bring every influence to bear upon the Constitutionalists to accede to the plan and to agree to enter into a general armistice in Mexico pending the drafting and signing of the peace protocol.

Senor Rabasa, his Mexican colleagues and the South American mediators insist that the land question is a problem for internal solution and that no foreign Power will be permitted to dictate to Mexico how this problem shall be dealt with.

Senor Rabasa intended issuing a statement to this effect, but changed his mind after receiving a communication from Acting Foreign Minister Ruiz.

The mediators and the Mexican delegates continued their "informal conversation" during the afternoon. Senor Rabasa received two messages from the Foreign Office in Mexico City, and the contents of these were communicated to the South American envoys.

Unless difficulties are encountered in persuading General Carranza and his advisors to agree to the terms that have been accepted by the representatives of Wilson and Huerta, the conference should be brought to

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

Needless—Use Parisian Sage.

Now that Parisian Sage can be had at any drug counter it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly the hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is all that is needed. Frequent applications and well rubbed into the scalp will do wonders—it acts like magic. The hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp, dandruff and falling hair cease—your head feels fine. Best of all, the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

You will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage. Try at least one fifty cent bottle from F. B. Johnson & Co they will refund the purchase price if you are not satisfied.

Must Favor List From Which Huerta's Successor Will be Picked For Mediation to Win.

WILL WAIT FOR AN ELECTION

(By U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, May 27.—That Carranza will approve the list from which Huerta's successor will be selected or there can be no result from the Niagara Falls conference was said to be the case here today. Carranza himself will not be included. He is perfectly willing to wait until a general election. But he has made it plain that no provisional president approved by Huerta will be accepted by him.

Carranza and Villa declare that they control Mexico and that they will not be robbed of their just rights. In this lies the dynamite of the present Mexican situation, officials said today.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 27.—That the delegates to the mediation conference probably will continue their conversations on board train was believed today. They left at 9:30 for Toronto to be the guests at a garden party given by Sir John Gipson and Lady Gipson.

So favorable has been the conversation that it was believed another full conference might be called for tomorrow that would pave the way to an early settlement. No disagreement has yet occurred.

Miss Tressa Stevens, of Cleveland, O., an ex-Catholic, delivered, to a large audience at the Friend's church Sunday morning and evening, the story of her life, in two lectures. In a very interesting and impressive manner she related the story of how she was born and reared in the Roman church, how that by constant training and drilling she received at home she grew to young womanhood a very strict Catholic, adhering very closely to the stringent demands of the church. She told in detail of how she was led to see the error she was in and how that she had been deceived into believing that the priest had power to forgive sins and of his infallibility. This came about through no Protestant influences whatever, no one having ever spoken to her on the subject, but by the direct dealing of God through His Word and by His Spirit to her soul. She related how that little by little she was led to the one who alone has power to forgive sins and how that after confessing to Him she received the real forgiveness of sins such that brought joy unspeakable to her soul and life. She said but little to her enemies only to tell them of the wonderful Savior she had found and how He had brought peace and joy to her troubled heart such as never can be obtained in confessing to the priest. So she waited patiently, confident that the God who delivered the Three Hebrew children from the fiery furnace and Daniel from Lion's mouths and Moses from the hands of the Egyptians was amply able to deliver her from Romanism. So she endured her punishment without a murmur. She went on to relate how by a combination of circumstances she again was permitted to come back to her home and that how the influence of her holy and Godly life so affected her parents and they too renounced Catholicism and were converted to Protestantism. She has no harsh criticism to offer against the people of her former church.

She expects to soon publish a book containing the complete story of her life which she hopes will be an uplift to many of her former people as well as to Protestants.

Bad Watering Spoils As Many Lawns As Drought

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Washington, May 27.—Bad watering is the cause of almost as many poor lawns as drought, according to the landscape gardener of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Frequent watering of merely the surface of the grass, makes the roots of the grass grow near the surface, and these roots should be made to grow down as deeply as possible in order to secure a fine lawn that will resist the hottest weather of summer.

The best method of watering the grass is to apply a spray for from 6 to 12 hours, the stream being so gentle that water will not collect in sufficient quantities to run off. The water will then sink down into the soil and the roots will grow to a greater depth. When this method is used, the lawn should not be watered oftener than twice a week and then the ground should be soaked, so that the water penetrates for several inches beneath the surface. As a general rule, watering once a week is sufficient to keep a lawn in good condition.

The man who enjoys watering his lawn in the evening for a half hour after returning from work will probably prefer this method to leaving the stream on for a number of hours once a week. If he will divide his lawn area in 6 parts and confine his attention to a different part each evening, he will obtain practically the same results in the long run. Haphazard watering every evening is not advisable. He should be careful, also, to use merely a gentle spray, and not continue watering to such an extent that water runs off, as such water does no good. In fact, it may do harm, for it may remove loose dirt from the grass roots and expose them to drought. The strong stream of a hose should not be used, as it helps to expose the roots unnecessarily.

Many people wonder why drought dries up their lawns in July after they have taken what they consider to be good care of them. The combination of hot winds and dry weather makes July undoubtedly the hardest month for lawns, and when the roots of the grass are encouraged to grow near the surface, by bad watering, and the loose dirt is also removed from them by a hose of strong water power, the results are more disastrous than if the lawn had been left alone.

FELL DOWN STEPS.

Cecil Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe, of North Oliver street, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon at the Jackson school, when he slipped and fell down the basement steps. The little boy landed on his face and it was badly cut and bruised. For a time it was thought he had broken his jaw bone. It was necessary to take him to his home.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield Opens Meeting and W. J. Bryan Will Speak at Banquet.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 27.—"Big Business" opened its first national convention here today. With high government officials and officers of the largest manufacturing concerns in the United States on the program, the first National Foreign Trade Convention, as it is officially known, began its two days meeting.

The convention, its members declare, has been made necessary by the success of foreign trade of this country. Their desire to "get together" and talk over the problems confronting the manufacturer, was stimulated they say, by a desire to extend American commerce still further and to interpret, as nearly as they can, the effects the Underwood-Simmons tariff law and the new currency law have had already on business conditions here and abroad.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield has promised to open the convention while Secretary of State Bryan will be one of the chief speakers at tonight's banquet.

On the program appear such as James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation; Edward C. Simmons, of St. Louis, the hardware manufacturer; J. J. Hill, brother of the Northwest; H. G. Heerdt, president of the Illinois Manufacturers Association; Ellison A. Stoyth, president of the Cotton Manufacturers association of South Carolina; Capt. Robert Dollar, president of the Robert Dollar Steamship Company, of San Francisco; J. D. Ryan, president of the Amalgamated Copper Company and James A. Arnold, secretary-manager of the Texas Business Men's Association.

SOLDIERS HERE ARE NOT PLEASED

Don't Approve of President Wilson's Refusal to Attend Memorial Day Services Saturday.

But he Will Deliver a Speech at the Unveiling of the Confederate Monument June 4.

Union soldiers here are not much pleased at the announcement contained in Washington dispatches today that President Wilson will not attend the memorial services for union soldiers at the Arlington national cemetery in Washington next Saturday, Decoration day, but will attend and deliver a speech at the unveiling of the Confederate monument June 4 in Washington.

As well as being a source of displeasure for the northern veterans of the civil war, dispatches say the fact that Wilson is standing out on his first declaration not to attend is causing a stew among congressmen in northern states where the old soldier vote frequently turns the tide in an election. They fear this will be a serious obstacle in their candidacy for re-election.

The dispatch continues that because of the president's unwillingness to attend the Memorial day celebration for Union soldiers, the members of the G. A. R. have withdrawn from participation in the Confederate unveiling and a row is on.

Democratic candidates of the northern states fear that the biggest sort of an issue will blow up over this matter and they are very earnest in their hope that President Wilson will motor over to the cemetery on Decoration day, even if he does not stay any longer than ten minutes.

They recall vividly the storm that was raised when President Cleveland, the last Democratic president, went fishing on Decoration day. They also apprehend that the dismissal of veterans from various government departments will not leave a good taste in the mouths of old soldiers.

Meanwhile the president's square, firm jaw seems to be set.

THIRD SESSION TONIGHT

American Library Association to Hear Noted Speakers

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 27.—"The Present Trend" was the topic of an address analyzing the tendencies of the American mind along literary lines to be delivered at the opening of the third session of the American Library association tonight by O. H. Bolton, librarian of the Boston Athenaeum. At the same meeting a paper will be read by Katherine H. Wooten, librarian, Carnegie Library, Atlanta, Ga., on the subject, "Recent Library Development in the South" and there will also be an interesting description of "The Educational Work of the American Federation of Arts," by Robert W. DeForest, president, and Lelia Roebelin, secretary of the Federation. Miss Roebelin's address will be illustrated by stereopticon

RELIEF AT PITTSBURG.

(By United Press.)

Pittsburg, Penn., May 27.—Cool breezes and light showers, probable forerunners of heavy thunder showers, today gave relief to suffering thousands in Pittsburg. The mercury was expected, however, to climb to the mark reached yesterday afternoon, 89.

The pupils and teachers of the Jackson school this afternoon celebrated the closing of the session with a picnic at the city park. ## Paris' Latest

¶ The latest edict from Paris declares low busts, long hips, straight backs, unconfined waists, in a word, the charmingly free, supple lines of the natural figure. Modish corsets must conform with these emphatic demands of fashion and produce litheness and willowy grace. American Lady Corsets are such corsets, affording not only modish grace and ease but comfort. ¶ Among the many American Lady Corsets are a wide range of styles for all types of figures—slender, medium and stout. ¶ May we show you the model which will improve your figure?
